

We've received your financial aid application.

We've received your financial aid application for Databases and SQL for Data Science. We'll let you know the outcome of your application on Apr 28, 2019. If you choose to start a free trial, your pending financial aid applications will be canceled. If you'd like to re-apply for financial aid after starting a free trial, you'll need to cancel your subscription first.
